Data Protection

In order to send out newsletters and circulate other information we need to store the details which you have given to us. This is to say your name, postal address, email address (if any), and telephone number(s). We store these details in a computer database held by our membership secretary, which he makes available to other club officials when needed. We do not share the details with any other person or organisation and we are not involved in marketing of any kind.

The law states that we must make the above information clear to you and let you know if we change any of our procedures. We are also required to set out your legal rights, which are as follows:-

1. To check what information we store about you.
2. To be removed from our database.
3. To have your history with us deleted.
4. To change your details at any time.

We hope you are happy with the way that we record and use your personal data. However, we can only continue to do so if you give us your specific consent by completing the details below and returning this form.

Do you agree that the Friends of Burtle Church may
